

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Preface: Introducing Made-from-Bone, the Trickster-Creator	xi
1. The Arawakan Wakuénai of Venezuela	i
Part I: Words from the Primordial Times
Overview	20
2. Narratives from the Primordial Times	25
The Cricket-Brothers; or, The Origin of Made-from-Bone	25
The Origin of Death	29
Owl-Monkey; or, Made-from-Bone Tries to End Poisoning	31
Made-from-Bone and Anaconda-Person	33
The Origin of the Bat-People	37
The Origin of Cooking with Hot Peppers	38
The Origin of the Vulture-People	42
Great Sickness; or, The Origin of Malaria	48
Made-from-Bone Creates Evil Omens	53
3. Ethnohistorical Interlude: Historical Themes in the Myth of Made-from-Bone and Anaconda-Person	57

Part 2: The World Begins

Overview 70

4. Narratives from “The World Begins” 75
  - Grandfather Sleep; or, The Origin of Night 75
  - The Origin of Fire 80
  - The Origin of Working in Manioc Gardens 82
  - The Origin of Ceremonial Music 83
  - The Origin of Bocachico-Fish Dances 85
  - Pípirri; or, The Origin of Peach-Palm Fruits 87
5. Ethnomusicological Interlude: The Catfish Trumpet Festival of 1981, or How to Ask for a Drink in Curripaco 92

Part 3: The World Opens Up

Overview 110

6. Narratives from “The World Opens Up” 117
  - Kuwái*, the Powerful Sound that Opened Up the World 117
  - The Struggle between Made-from-Bone and First-Woman 127
  - The Origin of Hallucinogenic Snuff and Shamanic Healing 134
  - The Origin of Honey for Curing 136
  - The Origin of Witchcraft and Its Treatment 138
  - The Origin of Enchanted Spirits and the City of Gold 142
7. Ethnological Coda: Shamanizing the State in Venezuela 147

Appendix A: A Note on Translation Methods 157

Appendix B: AILLA Numbers for Narratives, Music, Dances, and Illustrations 160

Notes 163

Glossary 171

References Cited 177

Index 185