

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| List of Illustrations | vii |
| Acknowledgments | ix |
| Prologue | 1 |
| 1. Public-Service Experimentation, Land-Grant Universities, and the Development of Broadcasting in the United States, 1900–1925 | 9 |
| 2. University Stations, Extension Ideals, and Broadcast Practices during the 1920s | 40 |
| 3. Public-Service Broadcasting and the Development of Radio Policy, 1900–1927 | 80 |
| 4. The Federal Radio Commission and the Decline of Noncommercial Educational Stations, 1927–34 | 113 |
| 5. Education and the Fight to Reform Radio Broadcasting, 1930–36 | 152 |
| 6. Broadcast Practices and the Stabilization of Noncommercial Stations during the 1930s and 1940s | 178 |
| 7. Network Practices, Government Oversight, and Public-Service Ideals: The University of Chicago Round Table | 216 |

Epilogue 239

Abbreviations 251

Notes 257

Index 305