Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: Maternal Societies in the Nineteenth Century 1

1. “Moses Saved from the Waters”: The Origins of the Society for Maternal Charity 29

2. “A Grand and Official Institution”: The Society for Maternal Charity under Napoleon 58

3. Modeling Maternal Behavior: Relations between the Dames Visiteuses and the Pauvres Mères Indigentes 83

4. In the Public Interest: Charitable Associations and Public-utility Status 113

5. “Seconding the Views of the Government”: Maternal Societies and the State 139
   Epilogue: Toward a Welfare State 171

Notes 181

Index 247