Contents

List of Illustrations ix
Acknowledgments xi

Introduction: Sharpsburg, Maryland, 1803 1

1. “The Land Flows with Milk and Honey”:
Agriculture and Labor in the Early Republic 23

2. “A Strange Reverse of Fortune”:
Panic, Depression, and the Transformation of Labor 64

3. “There Are Objections to Black and White,
but One Must Be Chosen”: Managing Farms and Farmhands in Antebellum Maryland 91

4. “... How Much of Oursels We Owned”:
Finding Freedom along the Mason-Dixon Line 115

5. “Chased Out on the Slippery Ice”:
Rural Wage Laborers in Antebellum Maryland 152

Conclusion: Sharpsburg, Maryland, 1862 195

Notes 201
Index 257