Contents

Acknowledgments ix
Introduction 1

1. Republican Fathers: Capital Takes to the Woods, 1790–1825 7
2. Democratic Children: Farmers and the Jacksonians, 1825–40 30
3. The Anti-Renters: Agrarians and the Politics of Faction 60
4. New Crops, New Challenges: Farm Life in the 1850s 89
5. Agrarianism Outflanked: Farmers, Railroads, and Politics, 1848–65 114
6. The Maturation of the Market Economy: Dairy and Hops Culture, 1870–1900 147
7. Tenant Unrest and Elite Cooperation: Responses to the New Economy 171
8. The Grange Movement, 1874–1900 195

Conclusion 219
Notes 225
Index 273