Contents

Acknowledgments / ix
Introduction: Watching Soul Food
Anne L. Bower / 1

PART ONE: THE HISTORY OF AFRICAN AMERICAN FOOD
1. Food Crops, Medicinal Plants, and the Atlantic Slave Trade
   Robert L. Hall / 17
2. Soul Food as Cultural Creation
   William C. Whit / 45
3. Excavating the South’s African American Food History
   Anne Yentsch / 59

PART TWO: REPRESENTATIONS OF AFRICAN AMERICAN FOOD
4. From Fiction to Foodways: Working at the Intersections of African American Literary and Culinary Studies
   Doris Witt / 101
5. Chickens and Chains: Using African American Foodways to Understand Black Identities
   Psyche Williams-Forson / 126
6. Recipes for Respect: Black Hospitality Entrepreneurs before World War I
   Rafia Zafar / 139
7. Recipes for History: The National Council of Negro Women’s Five Historical Cookbooks
   Anne L. Bower / 153

Contributors / 175
Index / 177