Contents

Preface vii
Bell Yung

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction 1
Andrew N. Weintraub

1. Agency and Voice: The Philippines
at the 1998 Smithsonian Folklife Festival 19
Ricardo D. Trimillos

2. Use and Ownership: Folk Music
in the People’s Republic of China 42
Helen Rees

3. Access and Control: A Key to Reclaiming the Right to Construct Hawaiian History 86
Amy Kuʻuleialoha Stillman

4. National Patrimony and Cultural Policy:
The Case of the Afroperuvian Cajón 110
Javier F. León

5. Historical Legacy and the Contemporary World:
UNESCO and China’s Qin Music in the Twenty-first Century 140
Bell Yung
6. Representation and Intracultural Dynamics:
   Romani Musicians and Cultural Rights
   Discourse in Ukraine 169
   Adriana Helbig

7. Representing Tibet in the Global Cultural Market:
   The Case of Chinese-Tibetan Musician Han Hong 187
   Nimrod Baranovitch

   Cultural Group and the Youth from the Favelas
   as Responses to Violence in Brazil 219
   Silvia Ramos and Ana María Ochoa

9. In Search of a Cross-Cultural Legal Framework:
   Indigenous Musics as a Worldwide Commodity 241
   Felicia Sandler

Glossary of Chinese Characters 273
Bibliography 279
Contributors 297
Index 301