CONTENTS

Preface vii
Acknowledgments ix

1. Institutional Theory and Family Migration 1
2. Hong Kong’s Institutional Background 18

PART ONE. COSMOPOLITAN EMIGRANTS

3. The Luk Family: Exit and Return of Emigrant Planners 35
4. The Chou and Leung Families: Immigrant Entrepreneurs 58
5. Francis Kwong: The Professional’s Dilemma 80

PART TWO. THE ROOTED: TIES TO HONG KONG DETER MIGRATION

6. The Gung Family: Hong Kong Locals 101
7. The Ongs: A Nonemigrant Trading Family 118
8. Brian Wan: The Extended Family Emigrates 135

PART THREE. WORKING CLASS FAMILIES: UNLIKELY EMIGRANTS

9. The Szeto Family: Nowhere to Run 159
10. The Hung Family: Canceled Migration Dreams 180
11. The Chia Brothers: Constructing Hong Kong as the Place to Be 200

12. Conclusion: Movers and Stayers 217

Notes 231
References 235
Index 257