CONTENTS

FOREWORD

Robert W. Rydell

WORLD’S FAIRS IN FEMINIST HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

TJ Boisseau and Abigail M. Markwyn

PART I: WOMAN, GENDER, AND NATION

1. “Little Black Rose” at the 1934 Exposição Colonial Portuguesa
   Isabel Morais
   19

2. The New Soviet Woman at the 1939 New York World’s Fair
   Alison Rowley
   37

3. Japan—Modern, Ancient, and Gendered at the 1893 Chicago World’s Fair
   Lisa K. Langlois
   56

4. Manliness and the New American Empire at the 1915 Panama-Pacific Exposition
   Sarah J. Moore
   75
part II women in action

5. Mormon Women, Suffrage, and Citizenship at the 1893 Chicago World’s Fair
   Andrea G. Radke-Moss
   97

6. Internationalist Peace Activism at the 1924 British Empire Exhibition
   Anne Clendinning
   113

7. The Woman’s World’s Fairs (or the Dream of Women Who Work), Chicago 1925–1928
   TJ Boisseau
   131

8. Memorializing the 1897 Tennessee Centennial Woman’s Building
   Elisabeth Israels Perry
   149

part III gendered spaces

9. Encountering “Woman” on the Fairgrounds of the 1915 Panama-Pacific Exposition
   Abigail M. Markwyn
   169

10. Woman’s Buildings at European and American World’s Fairs, 1893–1939
    Mary Pepchinski
    187

11. Policing Masculine Festivity at London’s Early Modern Fairs
    Anne Wohlcke
    208

Suggestions for Further Reading

Contributors

Index