Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xi

INTRODUCTION.
The Chicago Cubs: From Early Excellence to the Golden Age to That Darn Goat 1

Part I. From “Let’s Play Ball” to King Kelly

1 TITLE TIME?
Comments of the Cincinnati Press on the Late Base-Ball Match—Chicago Times, 1870 13

2 BASEBALL, CELEBRATED AND LAMPOONED
This National Game—New York Times, 1881 17
America’s National Game—Outing, 1888 20

3 MEASURING FIELDERS
Fall Field Sport—Chicago Times, 1876 29

4 “CAP”
Cap Anson of Marshalltown: Baseball’s First Superstar—David L. Porter, Palimpsest, 1980 35
Open Letter to Anson—Chicago Daily Tribune, 1897 45

5 THE $10,000 BEAUT!
When Fans Roared “Slide, Kelly, Slide!” at the Old Ballgame—James A. Cox, Smithsonian, 1982 49
Death of Kelly—Boston Daily Globe, 1894 59
Part II. From the Colts to the Dynasty

6 FROM TEETOTALING TO EGYPT  67
The Lessons of the League Campaign of 1888—Spalding's Official Baseball Guidebook, 1889  69
The Great Baseball Trip Around the World in 1888–’89—Spalding's Official Baseball Guidebook, 1889  71

7 HOT TIME AT THE HOT SPRINGS  75
Start Play This Week: Orphans Finish Their Training at Hudson Hot Springs—Chicago Daily Tribune, 1899  76

8 CHI-TOWN FANDEMONIUM  81
Nearly Everybody in Chicago Is Crazy About Baseball—Chicago Daily Tribune, 1906  84
Frantic Rooters Crowd the Field—Chicago Daily Tribune, 1906  90

9 EVERS ON THE GLORY YEARS  99
Excerpt from Touching Second: The Science of Baseball—John J. Evers and Hugh S. Fullerton, 1910  101

10 BARTMAN’S GOT NOTHIN’ ON MERKLE  109
Bluff of Giants Typical—I. E. Sanborn, Chicago Daily Tribune, 1908  111
Story of the Merkle Game—I. E. Sanborn, Chicago Daily Tribune, 1912  116
Manager O’Day Takes from Evers Credit for Famous Merkle Play—Chicago Daily Tribune, 1914  119

11 CUBS, CHAMPIONS!  121
Cubs Supreme in Baseball World—I. E. Sanborn, Chicago Daily Tribune, 1908  122
Part III. From the Hangover through the Roaring Twenties

14 OH MY! IT’S O’DAY!
Evers Deposed As Cubs Leader; O’Day Gets Job—Sam Weller, Chicago Daily Tribune, 1914

15 GROVER’S HIGHS AND LOWS
His Own Worst Enemy—Andrea I. Paul, Nebraska History, 1990

16 SHARE SQUABBLE AT THE SERIES
Adjustment Today, Players’ Demand—Melville E Webb Jr., Boston Daily Globe, 1918

17 PAPA, THE GIPPER, AND THE CUBS

Ronald Reagan: Above All, the Gipper was a Good Sport—Gary Peterson, 2004

18 HUMBLE BEGINNINGS, MAJESTIC LIFE
Wrigley Spent Fortune to Make Cubs Champs—Jim Crusinberry, Chicago Daily News, 1932

19 BASEBALL MAN
Busher Joe McCarthy—Joe Williams, Saturday Evening Post, 1939
Part IV. From Depression-Era Greatness to That Darn Goat

21 Rajah in Charge
M’Carthy Likely To Go; Hornsby Rumored for Job—Chicago Daily News, 1930

22 Did He Call It?
Home Runs by Ruth, Gehrig Beat Cubs, 7–5—Edward Burns, Chicago Daily Tribune, 1932

23 What Depression? Third World Series in Seven Years
All World Thrilled By Big Series—Gene Morgan, Chicago Daily News, 1935

24 Sandberg Before Sandberg?
Well-Spent Dime—Ron Coons, Courier-Journal & Times, 1975

25 Speakin’ of Hartnett
Gabby Likes ’Em Hot—Warren Brown, Saturday Evening Post, 1939

26 Swoonin’
The Decline and Fall of the Cubs—Stanley Frank, Saturday Evening Post, 1943

27 Maybe Next Year?
Back Cubs with Heavy Betting—John P. Carmichael, Chicago Daily News, 1945

Notes 263

Index 271