Acknowledgments | ix

BEYOND “EXTREME”:
THE CINEMA OF RESSENTIMENT | 1

Kim Ki-duk: Towards a More Perfect Imperfection | 1

An Auteur Is Born: Fishhooks, Critical Debates, and Transnational Canons | 12

On Suffering and Sufferance: Postcolonial Pain and the “Purloined Letter” in Address Unknown | 26

Reconciling the Paradox of Silence and Apologia: Bad Guy, The Isle, and 3-Iron | 45

Neofeminist Revisions: Female Bodies and Semiotic Chora in Birdcage Inn and Samaritan Girl | 69

The Bodhisattva Inner-Eye: Inwardly Drawn Transcendence in Spring, Summer, Fall, Winter . . . and Spring | 104

INTERVIEW WITH KIM KI-DUK:
FROM CROCODILE TO ADDRESS UNKNOWN,
BY KIM SO-HEE | 127

Filmography | 141

Bibliography | 147

Index | 155