Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction
  Michael J. Pfeifer 1

PART I. THE WEST

1. “Who Dares to Style This Female a Woman?”: Lynching, Gender, and Culture in the Nineteenth-Century U.S. West 21
  Helen McLure

2. The Popular Sources of Political Authority in 1856 San Francisco: Lynching, Vigilance, and the Difference between Politics and Constitutionalism 54
  Christopher Waldrep

3. “Light Is Bursting upon the World!”: White Supremacy and Racist Violence against Blacks in Reconstruction Kansas 81
  Brent M. S. Campney

4. The Rise and Fall of Mob Violence against Mexicans in Arizona, 1859–1915 110
  William D. Carrigan and Clive Webb
Kimberley Mangun and Larry R. Gerlach

PART II. THE MIDWEST

6. “The cry of the Negro should not be remember the Maine, but remember the hanging of Bush”: African American Responses to Lynching in Decatur, Illinois, 1893
Sundiata Keita Cha-Jua

7. Race, Sex, and Riot: The Springfield, Ohio, Race Riots of 1904 and 1906 and the Sources of Antiblack Violence in the Lower Midwest
Jack S. Blocker Jr.

8. Lynching in Late-Nineteenth-Century Michigan
Michael J. Pfeifer

PART III. THE NORTHEAST

9. “They Lynched Jim Cullen”: Story and Myth on the Northern Maine Frontier
Dena Lynn Winslow

10. The “Delaware Horror”: Two Ministers, a Lynching, and the Crisis of Democracy
Dennis B. Downey

Appendix: Lynchings in the Northeast, Midwest, and West
Contributors
Index