Contents

Foreword by Suzanne Cusick  ix
Preface  xiii
Acknowledgments  xv
Introduction  1

Chapter 1 From Women to Gender  13
Chapter 2 Introduction to Women and Music in Cross-Cultural Perspective  31
Chapter 3 Both In and Between: Women’s Musical Roles in Ritual Life  44

PART II: 1990–2000
Chapter 4 Shifting Realities  59
Chapter 5 Gender, Power, and Music  76
Chapter 6 Miriam Sings Her Song: The Self and the Other in Anthropological Discourse  90
Chapter 7 The Language of the Heart: Music in Lubavitcher Life  105
Chapter 8 When Women Play: The Relationship between Musical Instruments and Gender Style  122
Chapter 9  “Well, That’s Why We Won’t Take You, Okay?”: Women, Representation, and the Myth of the Unitary Self  133

PART III: 2000–2012

Chapter 10 Unresolved Issues  145
Chapter 11 The Ins and Outs on In and Out  157
Chapter 12 Out in Left Field/Left Out of the Field: Postmodern Scholarship, Feminist/Gender Studies, Musicology, and Ethnomusicology, 1990–2005  168

Chapter 13 Imaginary Conversations  180

Notes  191
References  199
Index  227