Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments vii
  Michael A. Pagano

PART ONE: OVERVIEW
  “Neighborhoods Matter . . . Neighborhood Matters” 3
    Janet L. Smith

PART TWO: WHITE PAPERS
  “Opportunity without Moving: Building Strong Neighborhoods
   Where People Can Stay If They Want To” 37
    Mary Pattillo

DISCUSSANT:
  “Restoring Neighborhoods to the Center:
   Alternative Mechanisms and Institutions” 64
    Teresa L. Córdova

  “People and Places: Neighborhood as a
   Strategy of Urban Development from the Progressive Era to Today” 69
    Alice O’Connor
DISCUSSANT:
“Varieties of Neighborhood Capitalism: Control, Risk, and Reward” 102
Rachel Weber

“Cities, Schools, and Social Progress: The Impact of School Reform Policies on Low-Income Communities of Color” 107
Pedro A. Noguera

DISCUSSANT:
“The Janus-Faced Neighborhood School” 133
Elizabeth S. Todd-Breland

“Migrant Civil Society and the Metropolitics of Belonging” 139
Nik Theodore

DISCUSSANTS:
“Immigrant Civil Society and Incorporation in the Chicago Suburbs” 159
Nilda Flores-González, Andy Clarno, and Vanessa Guridy-Cerritos

PART THREE: SYNTHESIS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

“Not Your Parents’ Neighborhood: Tradition, Innovation, and the Changing Face of Community Development” 167
Stephanie Truchan

“What’s Next?” 186

List of Contributors 189