Interpretations of Culture in the New Millennium

Somalis Abroad
Clan and Everyday Life in Finland
STEPHANIE R. BJORK
with a foreword by Abdulkadir Osman Farah
“Bjork ingeniously deploys her own ethnographic experience to show how Somalis in Finland, embarrased on the global cultural stage by the persistence of clan ideology, nevertheless use clan identities as flexible paths to the intimate reaches of diasporic life.” —Michael Herzfeld, author of Cultural Intimacy: Social Poetics in the Nation-State
216 pp. 6 x 9. 3 b & w photos, 6 maps, 1 chart, 2 tables. 2017. Paperback 978-0-252-08824-1. $28.00; E-book

The Street Is My Pulpit
Hip Hop and Christianity in Kenya
MWENDA NTARANGWI
“A remarkably imaginative and personalized approach to popular music and youth culture, which sheds fascinating light on Kenya’s changing culture, history, politics and especially Christianity.” —Paul Gifford, author of Christianity, Politics, and Public Life in Kenya
206 pp. 6 x 9. 6 b & w photos. 2016. Paperback 978-0-252-08155-2. $25.00; E-book

Cultural Heritage in Mali in the Neoliberal Era
ROSA DE JORIO
“In the tradition of Michel Foucault’s work, Rosa de Jorio’s book represents a fascinating analysis of the politics of cultural heritage in Mali in the context of the privatization of cultural initiatives and the rise of fundamentalist Islam.” —Jean-Loup Amselle, author of Branchements: Anthropologie de l’universalité des cultures
224 pp. 6 x 9. 16 b & w photos, 1 map. 2016. Paperback 978-0-252-08172-9. $28.00; E-book

Reinventing Chinese Tradition
The Cultural Politics of Late Socialism
KA-MING WU
“Reinventing Chinese Tradition is a fine example of how the anthropological analysis of tradition and suggests how anthropologists can articulate the relationship between modernity and tradition(s) in all societies.” —Anthropology Review Database
208 pp. 6 x 9. 24 b & w photos, 1 map, discography. 2015. Paperback 978-0-252-08140-8. $25.00; E-book

Cape Verde, Let’s Go
Creole Rappers and Citizenship in Portugal
DEREK PARDUE
“Cape Verde, Let’s Go! is an interesting and worthwhile study of diasporic racial, linguistic, and musical identity. . . . The book’s greatest value. . . . is in bringing attention to an area of Europe—and to European colonial system—that is often eclipsed by focus on England, France, and Spain.” —Anthropology Review Database
208 pp. 6 x 9. 15 b & w photos, 1 map. 2015. Paperback 978-0-252-08117-0. $25.00; E-book

Street Life under a Roof
Youth Homelessness in South Africa
EMILY MARGARETTEN
“An exemplary ethnography of post-apartheid life. Margarettten takes us to a place that few people know even exists: a self-run shelter for homeless young people in Durban. What emerges is a searing portrait of drugs, violence, and AIDS but also of compassion, love, loyalty, and humanity.” —Mark Hunter, author of Love in the Time of AIDS: Inequality, Gender, and Rights in South Africa
232 pp. 6 x 9. 12 b & w photos, 2 maps. 2015. Paperback 978-0-252-08111-8. $25.00; E-book

Embodied Protests
Emotions and Women’s Health in Bolivia
MARIA TAPIAS
“An engagingly written, and often moving, depiction of the lives of working class women in Bolivia and their stories of suffering and success navigating the social and political economic obstacles of everyday life in the twenty-first century.” —Krista E. Van Vleet, author of Performing Kinship Narrative, Gender, and the Intimacies of Power in the Andes
176 pp. 6 x 9. 4 b & w photos, 1 map. 2015. Paperback 978-0-252-08874-6. $28.00; E-book
