

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

List of Illustrations xii

Preface: "Onward Forever" xiii

1. "Men and Women Who Would Be Free," 1784–1810 1
 2. "To Leave the House of Bondage," 1810–1826 24
 3. "Of What Use Are Processions?" 1827–1829 53
 4. "Our Own Native Land," 1830–1839 76
 5. "Unity Is the Condition of Success," 1837–1849 97
 6. "A Heavy and Cruel Hand Has Been Laid upon Us," 1850–1861 121
 7. "The Story of Seneca Village," 1825–1857 154
- Epilogue: "Still Marching On . . ." 175

Notes 179

Bibliography 227

Index 249