

Contents

Introduction 1
Peter N. Stearns

SECTION I: HISTORICAL AND SOCIOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES

Chapter 1. Demilitarization:
Unraveling the Structures of Violence 19
Andrew Bickford

SECTION II: GERMANY

Chapter 2. The Demilitarization of Germany, 1945–2010 37
Jay Lockenour

Chapter 3. Peace Movements and the Demilitarization of German Political Culture, 1970s–1980s 60
Holger Nehring

SECTION III: JAPAN

Chapter 4. Constrained Rearmament in Japan, 1945–1954:
US Strategic Preference for Securing Military Bases
and Impact of Japanese Financial Community 89
Yoneyuki Sugita

Chapter 5. From Demilitarization to Remilitarization: External and Internal Pressures on Japanese Security Policy 111
Glenn D. Hook

Chapter 6. Japanese Remilitarization and Constitutional Revision 127
Christopher Hughes

Chapter 7. Demilitarization and Democratization in the Post–World War II World 157
Stephanie Trombley Averill

SECTION IV: CENTRAL AMERICA

Chapter 8. Militaries and Modern States: The Comparative Evidence from Costa Rica and Honduras 185
Kirk Bowman

Chapter 9. Demilitarization after Central American Civil Wars 216
Philip J. Williams and J. Mark Ruhl

Afterword: Demilitarization in Contemporary World History 247
Peter N. Stearns

Contributors 251

Index 255