

Contents

Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xvii
Chronology of Major Events in the Life of Harry T. Burleigh	xxi

PART I. ERIE, PENNSYLVANIA: FOUNDATION FOR A NATIONAL CAREER

1	Hamilton Waters and the Struggle for Freedom and Education	3
2	The Family and Community That Shaped Burleigh's Youth	20
3	Burleigh's Music Experience and Training in Erie	41

PART II. TO NEW YORK CITY AND BEYOND

4	Burleigh at the National Conservatory of Music	65
5	Introducing Antonín Dvořák to African American Music	75
6	The Columbian Exposition—The Chicago World's Fair	91
7	The Symphony "From the New World"	104
8	Foremost Musician and Engaged Citizen	113
9	Burleigh's Singing Career	140
10	Music Mentor and Colleague	163
11	Family Matters: Fame and Its Discontents	184
12	Wife and Family of the "Eminent Baritone"	197
13	St. George's Becomes Mr. Burleigh's Church	214

PART III. ART SONG COMPOSER, MUSIC EDITOR,
AND PIONEER ARRANGER OF SPIRITUALS

- 14 A Singer-Composer Learns His Craft 243
15 “Composer by Divine Right” 268
16 Bringing Spirituals to the Concert Stage 298
17 Burleigh Spirituals and the Harlem Renaissance 324

PART IV. BURLEIGH’S LEGACY

- 18 The Impact of a Life 343
Notes 353
Index 405