

Contents

Preface xi

Acknowledgments xv

PART I: THE STUDENTS' GAME

- 1 Beginnings, Known and Unknown 1
- 2 Given a New Era 4
- 3 Officially Under Way 11
- 4 "You Must Do Something" 18
- 5 Making It Their Own 23
- 6 Captain 26
- 7 The Extracurriculum and Beyond 30
- 8 Fourth Year 35
- 9 Moving on, Ready or Not 41
- 10 Still under Construction 48
- 11 The Main Invention 55
- 12 Birth Year 62

PART II: GETTING NOTICED

- 13 Impossible to Ignore 69
- 14 Besides Medical School 72
- 15 Career Realities 76
- 16 Not So Easy After All 82
- 17 Writer, Teacher . . . Director? 86
- 18 “Having Waited in Vain” 91
- 19 Father of Football 99

PART III: THE GAME ESTABLISHED

- 20 An “American” Game of Football 107
- 21 Headquarters on Gill Street 113
- 22 Rivalry Demands Rules 120
- 23 Why American Football Grew 128
- 24 All-Americans 134
- 25 Author for an Expanding Game 139
- 26 Second Most Important Man in New Haven? 145

PART IV: WHOSE GAME NOW?

- 27 It’s Official: We Want to Win 151
- 28 “A Chief Charm of the Game” 157
- 29 “What Does Walter Think?” 159
- 30 The End of Student Rule Making 167
- 31 New Voices 170

PART V: BIGGER AND . . . ?

- 32 Critics and Defenders 175
- 33 Breakup 182
- 34 Failure Achieved 186

- 35 The Future Foreseen 192
- 36 Pax Intercollegiata 199
- 37 Striving for More 203
- 38 More than a Game 211
- 39 Officially a Yale Official 216
- 40 Not Done Yet 220

PART VI: THE NEW GAME

- 41 “The Game I Have Worked So Hard For” 223
- 42 A President Involved 229
- 43 Tipping Point 234
- 44 Democracy in Action 239
- 45 Starting from Scratch 250
- 46 Football as We Know It 256
- 47 Besides Rule Making 262
- 48 Away with the Old 272
- 49 “I Will Give It Up” 284

PART VII: KEEPING THE NATION FIT

- 50 Alternative Service 291
- 51 The Frankenstein of College Athletics 299
- 52 Unrecognized Legacy 302

Appendix: Chronology of Major Rule
Changes That Transformed Rugby
into American Football, 1876–1924 311

Notes 317

Selected Bibliography 369

Index 373