

Contents

Foreword vii

AnaLouise Keating

Introduction: “Womanist Is to Feminist as Purple Is to Lavender”:
Writing in Solidarity across Shades of Difference 1

PART I: TEACHING IN THE “UNIVERSAL[IST]” SPIRIT OF WOMANISM

- 1 Spirituality in the Classroom: Some Womanist Reflections 23
Layli Maparyan
- 2 Coming into Being: Metta to Womanist Teachers 36
Kendra N. Bryant
- 3 Professing the Liberatory Power of Womanism 53
Gary L. Lemons
- 4 A Doctored Voice: Resistance, Reading, and Righting
as Womanist Pedagogy 70
Ylce Irizarry

PART II: WOMANIST ALLIANCES FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

- 5 Breaking Silence 95
M. Jacqui Alexander and Beverly Guy-Sheftall
- 6 From Exile to Healing: I “Too” Am a Womanist 123
Susie L. Hoeller

7 Nepantlera as Midwife of Empathy 136
Paul T. Corrigan

8 A Deeper Shade of Consciousness: My Voice
Is My Resistance 149
Atika Chaudhary

PART III: SPEAKING AND ACTING OUT IN WOMANIST SOLIDARITY

9 Transgenero Performance: Gender and Transformation
in Mujeres en Ritual 171
Dora Arreola

10 Soy Mujer Cuando . . . A Collective Poem 184
Andrea Assaf

11 Now Is Not the Time for Silence: Writing and Directing
What the Heart Remembers 188
Fanni V. Green

12 "I Come from a Dream Deferred" 208
Erica C. Sutherland

13 On Becoming a Feminist 210
Rudolph P. Byrd

14 Compelled by the Spirit: My Journey to Become a Womanist Man 216
M. Thandabantu Iverson

Contributors 235

Index 239