

Contents

Preface ix

1. International Perspectives on Democracy in the Twenty-first Century 1
Brian J. Gaines and Peter F. Nardulli

I. Democratization on the Frontiers of the Third Wave

2. Democratization in the Twenty-first Century:
The Prospects for the Global Diffusion of Democracy 13
Larry Diamond
3. Is Democracy Contagious? Diffusion and the Dynamics of Regime Transition 42
Zachary Elkins
4. A Fourth Wave? The Role of International
Actors in Democratization 63
Bruce Russett
5. “Western Institutions” and “Universal Values”:
Barriers to the Adoption of Democracy 88
Lisa Anderson

II. Globalization and Democracy

6. Issues, Information Flows, and Cognitive Capacities:
Democratic Citizenship in a Global Era 115
James H. Kuklinski, Paul J. Quirk, and Buddy Peyton
 7. Globalization, the Decline of Civic Commitments, and the Future of Democracy 134
Wendy Rahn
 8. Globalization, Sovereignty, and Democracy: The Role of International Organizations in a Globalizing World 158
Beth Simmons
 9. Democracy and Markets in the Twenty-first Century:
An Agenda 183
John R. Freeman
 10. Economic Globalization and Democracy 221
Melissa A. Orlie
- Contributors 249
- Index 255