

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction xiii

Olga Nájera-Ramírez, Norma E. Cantú, and Brenda M. Romero

Part I: Contested Identities

1. Embodied Recuperations: Performance, Indigeneity, and Danza Azteca 3
Elisa Diana Huerta
2. The Zapopan Dancers: Reinventing an Indigenous Line of Descent 19
Renée de la Torre Castellanos
3. La Feria de Enero: Rethinking Gender in a Ritual Festival 48
Xóchitl C. Chávez
4. Dancing to “Whittier Boulevard”: Choreographing Social Identity 66
Marie “Keta” Miranda
5. Creating Agency and Identity in Danza Azteca 80
María Teresa Ceseña

Part II: Dimensions of Space and Place

6. The Semiotics of Land and Place:
Matachines Dancing in Laredo, Texas 97
Norma E. Cantú
7. Dancing to the Heights: Performing Zapotec
Identity, Aesthetics, and Religiosity 116
Adriana Cruz-Manjarrez
8. Traditional Dances of the Sierra Norte of Puebla:
Identity and Gender Relations 138
Alberto Zárate Rosales
9. ¿Por Qué Estás Aquí?: Dancing through History, Identity, and the Politics of Place in Butoh Ritual Mexicano 148
Shakina Nayfack
10. El Baile de los Elotes: The Corn Dance 165
José Sánchez Jiménez

Part III: Trajectories of Tradition

11. The Matachines Danza as Intercultural Discourse 185
Brenda M. Romero
12. The Ballet Folklórico de México and the Construction of the Mexican Nation through Dance 206
Sydney Hutchinson
13. Dancing Culture: A Personal Perspective on Folklórico 226
Rudy F. García
14. The Mexican Danzón: Restrained Sensuality 237
Susan Cashion
15. Gender as a Theme in the Modern Dance
Choreography of Barro Rojo 256
Nancy Lee Chalfa Ruyter

Part IV: Politics of Tradition and Innovation

16. Staging Authenticity: Theorizing the Development of Mexican Folklórico Dance 277
Olga Nájera-Ramírez
 17. Dance, Politics, and Cultural Tourism in Oaxaca's Guelaguetza 293
Chris Goertzen
 18. Bailando para San Lorenzo: Nuevo Mexicano Popular Traditional Musics, Ritual, Contexts, and Dancing during Bernalillo Fiesta Time 318
Peter J. García
 19. Folklórico in the United States: Cultural Preservation and Disillusion 335
Russell Rodríguez
 20. Zapateado Afro-Chicana Fandango Style: Self-Reflective Moments in Zapateado 359
Martha González
- Epilogue 379
- Selected Bibliography on Folk, Ritual, and Social Dance in Greater Mexico 383
- Works Cited 403
- Contributors 431
- Index 437