

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Prescript	1
1. Traditional Religion in West Africa and in the New World: A Thematic Overview	19
2. Disruptive Intersection: Slavery and the African Background in the Making of Hoodoo	34
3. The Search for High John the Conquer	68
4. Crisis at the Crossroads: Sustaining and Transforming Hoodoo's Black Belt Tradition from Emancipation to World War II	84
5. The Demise of Dr. Buzzard: Black Belt Hoodoo between the Two World Wars	116
6. Healin' da Sick, Raisin' da Daid: Hoodoo as Health Care, Root Doctors, Midwives, Treaters	135
7. Black Belt Hoodoo in the Post-World War II Cultural Environment	156
Postscript	179
Notes	187
Glossary	205
Bibliography	211
Index	227