

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgments | vii |
| Introduction: Why Pearl? MARINA DAHLQUIST | 1 |
| 1 Changing Views and Perspectives: Translating Pearl White's American Adventures in Wartime France RUDMER CANJELS | 25 |
| 2 "The Best-Known Woman in the World": Pearl White and the American Serial Film in Sweden MARINA DAHLQUIST | 46 |
| 3 Pearl, the Swift One, or the Extraordinary Adventures of Pearl White in France MONICA DALL'ASTA | 71 |
| 4 "The Most Assassinated Woman in the World": Pearl White and the First Avant-Garde CHRISTINA PETERSEN | 99 |
| 5 Fascinations for the Nation: American Serial Film, Czechoslovakia, and the Afterlives of Pearl White KEVIN B. JOHNSON | 126 |

| | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 6 | Not Quite (Pearl) White: Fearless Nadia, Queen of the Stunts | 160 |
| | ROSIE THOMAS | |
| 7 | From Pearl White to White Rose Woo: Tracing the Vernacular Body of Nüxia in Chinese Silent Cinema, 1927–1931 | 187 |
| | WEIHONG BAO | |
| | Contributors | 223 |
| | Index | 227 |