

CONTENTS

Introduction: Beyond Fundamentalism and Atheism 1

PART ONE. RE-EXAMINING FAITH IN ACTION

One. Postures of Trust 15

Humility as the Door to Faith 17

Friedrich Schleiermacher: Religious Consciousness of Absolute Dependence 24

Hindu Puja: Belonging to a Protected World 29

Conclusion 33

Two. What Is Our Sacred Responsibility in the World? 35

Hindu Dharma 35

What Can Mere Humans Do in Narnia? 41

God's Caliph on Earth 46

Covenantal Responsibility, Partnership, and Struggle 51

Conclusion 63

PART TWO. THE CENTRALITY OF DOUBT

Three. Christian Faith and the Protestant Principle 67

Søren Kierkegaard 68

Karl Barth 76

Paul Tillich 85

Conclusion 96

Four. Faith and Transcendence in Hindu Traditions	97
Mystical Experience and the Limits of Understanding in the Upanishads	100
Bhakti, Transcendence, and Freedom in the Bhagavad Gita	103
Maya: That Which Is Not	107
The Ambiguity of Hindu Theism: Shiva	112
Conclusion	118

PART THREE. RECONCILING WAYS OF FAITH AND DOUBT

Five. Resisting the Reification of Religion	123
Humanist Criticisms of Religious Dogmatism	124
The Mystical Path of Unknowing or Unlearning	131
Buddhist Teachings on Emptiness	140
Conclusion	145
Six. Faith and Hope for the Twenty-First Century	147
Jürgen Moltmann on Eschatology	148
Raimon Panikkar's Pluralistic Theology	156
John Caputo's Postmodern Religion	162
Conclusion	170

Conclusion: Dwelling in Uncertainty 171

Notes 175

Index 197