

Contents

Foreword William Bolcom ix

Editors' Preface Don M. Randel, Matthew Shaftel, and Susan Forscher Weiss xiii

PART 1. "What a Joy to Be Young": From Peru to Paris via Yale and Other Academies

1. Cole Porter at Yale Robert Kimball 3
2. When the Little Bluebird Starts to Sing:
Porter's Musical Formation Susan Forscher Weiss 11
3. Cole Porter, European Wilfried Van den Brande 34
4. Landed: Cole Porter's Ballet Simon Morrison 57

PART 2. Porter the Poet and Performer

5. Lists of Louche Living: Music in Cole Porter's
Social World Mitchell Morris 73
6. Which Comes First, the Music or the Lyrics?
"You're the Top" Rob Kapilow 86
7. "I Hate Parading My Serenading": The Historical Record of Porter as a Performer Eric Davis 98

8. From “Young Bears” to “Three-Letter Words”:
“Anything Goes,” 1934–1962 James Hepokoski 123
9. Keeping Faith with John Q. Public: Cole Porter,
Billy Rose, and Seven Lively Arts James O’Leary 165
10. “The Beat Beat Beat of the Tom-Tom”:
Cole Porter and the Exotic Joshua S. Walden 182

PART 3. Approaches to the Analysis and Criticism of Porter’s Works

11. Licentious Harmony and Counterpoint in Porter’s “Love for Sale” Michael Buchler 207
12. About Cole Porter’s Songs Don M. Randel 222
13. You Never Know: Anatomy of a Flop Cliff Eisen 242
14. A Consideration of Drama, Lyrics, and Musical Structure in a Porter Film:
Broadway Melody of 1940 Matthew Shaftel 261
15. Kiss Me, Kate Lynn Laitman Siebert 286

PART 4. Materials for the Study of Cole Porter’s Music

16. Cole Porter’s Papers Mark Eden Horowitz 307
17. Secondary Materials and the Study of Cole Porter Gregory J. Decker 319
- Selected Bibliography Gregory J. Decker 339
- About the Contributors 353
- Index 359