Contents

Acknowledgments ix
Acronyms xiii
Introduction 1

1. The Political and Gender Economy of the Mountain South, 1900–1964 17

2. “I Was Always Interested in People's Welfare”: Bringing the War on Poverty to Kentucky 41

3. “In the Eyes of the Poor, the Black, the Youth”: Poverty Politics in Appalachia 69

5. “The Best Care in History”: Interdependence and the Community Health Movement 120

6. “I’m Fighting for My Own Children That I’m Raising Up”: Women, Labor, and Protest in Harlan County 146

7. “Nothing Worse than Being Poor and a Woman”: Feminism in the Mountain South 171

Epilogue 197

Notes 203

Bibliography 243

Index 249