

Contents

Preface ix

Introduction i

1. The Racial Setting of Hawai'i in the 1920s 17
  2. Kidnapping, Killing, and Racial Profiling 36
  3. Capture, Confession, and Court 63
  4. Racial Bias and Injustice in Jury Selection and Trial 90
  5. The Insanity Question 117
  6. Aftermath of Death Sentence: Racial, Legal, and Community 134
- Conclusion: Fukunaga and Kahahawai 166

Notes 187

References 211

Index 225