

Contents

Preface xi

Acknowledgments xiii

Introduction: Hispanic Anarchist Print Culture:
Writing from Below 1

PART I: TRANSATLANTIC ORIGINS

1. Spanish Republicanism and the Press: The Political Socialization of Anarchists in the United States (1880s–1910s) 17
Sergio Sánchez Collantes
2. Globetrotters and Rebels: Correspondents of the Spanish-Language Anarchist Press, 1886–1918 36
Alejandro de la Torre

PART II: LATINO LABOR AND ANARCHISM IN THE UNITED STATES

3. Anarchism and the End of Empire: José Cayetano Campos, Labor, and Cuba Libre 53
Christopher J. Castañeda
4. Red Florida in the Caribbean Red: Hispanic Anarchist Transnational Networks and Radical Politics, 1880s–1920s 67
Kirwin R. Shaffer

5. Spanish-speaking Anarchists in the United States: The Newspaper Cultura Obrera and Its Transnational Networks (1911–1927) 86
Susana Sueiro Seoane
6. Spanish Firemen and Maritime Syndicalism, 1902–1940 103
Jon Bekken and Mario Martín Revellado

PART III: ANARQUISTAS ON THE FRONTIER

7. Moving West: Jaime Vidal, Anarchy, and the Mexican Revolution, 1904–1918 121
Christopher J. Castañeda
8. Caritina M. Piña and Anarcho-syndicalism: Labor Activism in the Greater Mexican Borderlands, 1910–1930 136
Sonia Hernández
9. Traces of the Revista Única: Appearances and Disappearances of Anarchism in Steubenville, 1909–1973 153
Jesse Cohn

PART IV: IMAGINING A NEW WORLD

10. The Anarchist Imaginary: Max Nettlau and Latin America, 1890–1934 177
Jorell A. Meléndez-Badillo
11. Reflections of the United States: Through the Pages of La Revista Blanca, 1923–1936 194
María José Domínguez and Antonio Herrería Fernández
12. Transnational Anarchist Culture in the Interwar Period: The Magazine Estudios (1928–1937) 209
Javier Navarro Navarro

PART V: SPANISH CIVIL WAR AND EXILE

13. Keepsakes of the Revolution: Transnational Networks and the U.S. Circulation of Anarchist Propaganda during the Spanish Civil War 227
Michel Otayek

14. España Libre, 1939–1977: Anarchist Literature and Antifascism in the United States 245
Montse Feu (M. Montserrat Feu López)
  15. Federico Arcos (1920–2015): An Iberian Anarchist Exile 258
David Watson
- Epilogue 277
- Appendix A. Periodicals (selected) 281
- Appendix B. Archives, Digital Databases, and Projects (selected) 285
- Contributors 287
- Index 293