Becoming Mapuche
Person and Ritual in Indigenous Chile
MAGNUS COURSE

Convincing historical analysis blends with sophisticated contemporary theory in this superb ethnography of the Mapuche people of southern Chile. In addition to accounts of the intimacies of everyday kinship and friendship, Course also offers the first complete ethnographic analyses of the major social events of contemporary rural Mapuche life within the indigenous reserves—chilka, funerals, the ritual sport of palin, and the great ngillatun fertility ritual. The volume includes a glossary of terms in Mapudungun.
