THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION
IN CHICAGO
Immigration Politics from the Early Twentieth Century to the Cold War
JOHN H. FLORES
"Well-researched and argued. Flores is the historian who has done the best work on how Mexico, as an 'imagined community,' bonded immigrants as 'Mexicans' and, at the same time, how the politics of Mexico divided them as a community. He does an excellent job in examining the role of political leadership and the political culture of Mexican Chicago."—Juan Mora-Torres, author of The Making of the Mexican Border: The State, Capitalism, and Society in Nuevo León, 1848–1910
Paperback 978-0-252-08342-6. $28.00; E-book

Illegal
Reflections of an Undocumented Immigrant
JOSÉ ÁNGEL N.
"An utterly believable close-up picture of one illegal immigrant's life in the United States."—Kirkus Reviews
"With great eloquence and pathos, N. draws on his daily life and references philosophers from Socrates to Kant to describe the netherworld of the undocumented. He takes solace in his education and his gift for reflection. . . . N. gives voice to the millions who, of necessity, live in the shadows."
—Booklist
136 pp. 6 x 9. 2014.
Paperback 978-0-252-07886-3. $19.95; E-book

LATINA LIVES IN MILWAUKEE
THERESA DELGADILLO
The voices of Latina women leaders in a unique moment and place in the history of the Midwest.
"Not only excellent but timely as well. The book will undoubtedly prove to be a valuable resource guide that will not only introduce the literature but also provide an impressive study for experts in Latina cultural studies."
—Alvina E. Quintana, author of Home Girls: Chicana Literary Voices
240 pp. 6 x 9. 16 b & w photos. 2015.
Paperback 978-0-252-08136-1. $28.00; E-book
Support for this research received from The Ohio State University College of Arts and Sciences Publication Subvention Grant.

IN SEARCH OF BELONGING
Latinas, Media, and Citizenship
JILLIAN M. BÁEZ
"Báez makes a seminal contribution with this smartly researched study. She gives voice to U.S. Latinas as they enact cultural citizenship, offering important insights on how Latinas consume media for a sense of affirmation, belonging, and empowerment."
—Mary C. Beltrán, author of Latina/o Stars in U.S. Eyes: The Making and Meanings of Film and TV Stardom
Paperback 978-0-252-08341-9. $26.00; E-book
Compañeros
Latino Activists in the Face of AIDS
JESUS RAMIREZ-VALLESES
"Argues that community involvement, in this case related to the HIV epidemic, creates social change while simultaneously nourishing the self of those involved. The argument is sustained through the voices of eight Latino gay, bisexual, and transgender individuals.”—Contemporary Sociology
192 pp. 6 x 9. 6 tables. 2011. Paperback 978-0-252-07812-5. $29.00; E-book
Received first place in the Best Health Book—English category in the Latino Literacy Now’s International Latino Book Awards

Defending Their Own in the Cold
The Cultural Turns of U.S. Puerto Ricans
MARC ZIMMERMAN
“A healthy addition to any Latino Studies course focusing on art or literary movements. Defending Their Own in the Cold provides an introduction to contemporary cultural representation of Latinos and Puerto Ricans in the Midwest.”—Latino Studies
232 pp. 6 x 9. 20 b & w photos. 2011. Hardcover 978-0-252-08467-0. $57.00; E-book

Chicanas of 18th Street
Narratives of a Movement from Latino Chicago
LEONARD G. RAMÍREZ WITH YENELLI FLORES, MARÍA GAMBOA, ISÁURA GONZÁLEZ, VICTORIA PÉREZ, MAGDA RAMÍREZ-CASTAÑEDA, AND CRISTINA VITAL
“For clear writing, honest introspection, and helpful historiography on the Chicanito movement, I commend this book.”—Fides et historia
272 pp. 6 x 9. 22 b & w photos, 7 line drawings, 1 map. 2011. Paperback 978-0-252-07812-5. $29.00; E-book
Society of Professors of Education Book Award

Latino Urban Ethnography and the Work of Elena Padilla
EDITED BY MÉRIDA M. RÚA
“Rúa’s thoughtful collection revisits many relevant issues for contemporary researchers, such as the reflexive role of the “native fieldworker,” the gendered dimensions of academic politics, the racial and class stratification of urban enclaves, and the ongoing construction of a panethnic sense of Latinidad I strongly recommend the book for those interested in immigration, ethnicity, and race in the United States and the Caribbean.”—New West Indian Guide
224 pp. 6 x 9. 1 b & w photo, 1 table. 2010. Paperback 978-0-252-07763-0. $24.00; E-book

¡Marcha!
Latino Chicago and the Immigrant Rights Movement
EDITED BY AMALIA PALLARES AND NILDA FLORES-GONZÁLEZ
“Brings together a diverse array of complementary analyses of the key actors, ideas, and institutions of the spring 2006 immigrant rights mobilization, the largest single wave of street protests in U.S. history.”—Jonathan Fox, author of Accountability Politics: Power and Voice in Rural Mexico
320 pp. 6.125 x 9.25. 10 b & w photos, 18 charts, 1 table. 2011. Paperback 978-0-252-07716-6. $32.00

Bringing Aztlán to Mexican Chicago
My Life, My Work, My Art
JOSÉ GAMALIEL GONZÁLEZ
Edited and with an Introduction by Marc Zimmerman
“González was a tireless and forceful artist-activist who struggled to promote Latino arts in the community and mainstream. His life story gives the reader a glimpse into the rise of Latino popular art and politics. His autobiography fills a substantial gap in the cultural history of Chicago’s Latino community.”—Latino Studies
200 pp. 8.5 x 11. 128 b & w photos. 2010. Paperback 978-0-252-07765-7. $32.00; E-book

Moving Beyond Borders
Julian Samora and the Establishment of Latino Studies
EDITED BY ALBERTO LÓPEZ PULIDO, BARBARA DRISCOLL DE ALVARADO, AND CARMEN SAMORA
“Succeeds mightily in giving Julian Samora his well-deserved recognition as a major figure in the building and sustenance of an important dimension of inclusion in higher education.”—Journal of American Ethnic History
312 pp. 6 x 9. 11 b & w photos, 1 table. 2009. Paperback 978-0-252-07865-6. $32.00

Pots of Promise
Mexicans and Pottery at Hull-House, 1920–40
EDITED BY CHERYL R. GANZ AND MARGARET STROBEL
Foreword by Vicki L. Ruiz
“A welcome addition to American Latino Studies and Art History Studies library collections.”—Library Bookwatch
Includes 131 color and black-and-white photos, many of them previously unpublished, and four essays.
168 pp. 8.5 x 11. 131 b & w photos. 2004. Paperback 978-0-252-07197-3. $32.95