A Nation of Immigrants Reconsidered
US Society in an Age of Restriction, 1924–1965
EDITED BY MADDALENA MARINARI, MADELINE Y. HSU, AND MARIA CRISTINA GARcía
In A Nation of Immigrants Reconsidered, leading scholars of immigration explore how the political and ideological struggles of the "age of restriction" paved the way for the changes to come.

A Century of Transnationalism
Immigrants and Their Homeland Connections
EDITED BY NANCY L. GREEN AND ROGER WALDINGER
"A Century of Transnationalism is a thoughtful and useful addition to research on migration and diaspora studies. It explores the diversity of over a century of migration experiences while highlighting shared migration factors: the tug-of-war of loyalties between home and host culture and the push-pull forces of assimilation versus alienation." —Review 31
292 pp. 6 x 9. 2 maps, 3 charts. 2016. Paperback 978-0-252-08190-3. $30.00; E-book 978-0-252-09886-4. $27.00

Hong Kong Movers and Stayers
Narratives of Family Migration
JANET W. SALAFF, SIU-LUN WONG, AND ARENT GREVE
"Hong Kong Movers and Stayers is an engaging and superbly researched sociological ethnography that treats migration as a process and not a singular act of departure and settlement. . . . The book represents collaborative work at its best." —Contemporary Sociology
272 pp. 6 x 9. 1 table. 2010. Paperback 978-0-252-07704-3. $32.00

The Yankee Yorkshireman
Migration Lived and Imagined
MARY H. BLEWETT

Migration, Class, and Transnational Identities
Croatians in Australia and America
VAL COLIC-PEISKER
“Well informed about the current research agenda and theoretical debates of immigration studies... engagingly written, and with proposed arguments supported by extensive citations from interviewees, the book is an evident accomplishment.”
—American Historical Review
Hardcover 978-0-252-03360-5. $49.00; E-book 978-0-252-09086-8. $30.00

The Immigrant Threat
The Integration of Old and New Migrants in Western Europe since 1850
LEO LUCASSEN
“It rescues a nearly lost history, that of earlier immigrations to western European countries, such as the movement of Italians to France. . . . Lucassen is convincing that the comparison between past and present has produced a ‘feast of recognition’ of similarities between different eras, notwithstanding the obvious differences.”
—International Review of Social History
