Subject to Reality
Women and Documentary Film
SHILYH WARREN
Deeply attentive, intelligent and generous to the subjects of her study, Warren’s book is a model of inclusive scholarship. Put simply, Subject to Reality is an ethical work, one which we need now more than ever.”—Amelie Hastie, author of Cupboards of Curiosity: Women, Recollection, and Film History
Paperback 978-0-252-08434-8. $29.95;
E-book 978-0-252-05137-1. $14.95

Pink-Slipped
What Happened to Women in the Silent Film Industries?
JANE M. GAINES
“This is not simply a book about the historiography of early film history or women’s place in it. Gaines’s larger argument is more ambitious, as she attempts to trouble, complicate, and inject some skepticism into the historical project in which she and others are engaged.”
—Patrice Petro, author of Idols of Modernity: Movie Stars of the 1920s
328 pp. 7 x 10. 63 b & w Photos. 2018.
Paperback 978-0-252-08343-3. $29.95;
E-book 978-0-252-05048-0. $14.95

Seeing Sarah Bernhardt
Performance and Silent Film
VICTORIA DUCKETT
“Radically revises our understanding of why Sarah Bernhardt chose to engage in the new medium of motion pictures and why her 1910s films were received (and are still readable) as both artistic and popular works far beyond France.”
—Richard Abel, author of Americanizing the Movies and “Movie-Mad” Audiences, 1910–1914
248 pp. 6 x 9. 44 b & w Photos. 2015.
Paperback 978-0-252-08116-3. $30.00;
E-book 978-0-252-05118-7. $27.00
A Choice Outstanding Academic Title, 2016

Exporting Perilous Pauline
Pearl White and the Serial Film Craze
EDITED BY MARINA DAHLQUIST
“This consistently clear and accessible collection includes fascinating case studies on film star Pearl White and the impact of the serial film format, examining an important but still under-examined area in early cinema.”—Vicki Callahan, editor of Reclaiming the Archive: Feminism and Film History
Paperback 978-0-252-07997-6. $30.00;
E-book 978-0-252-09636-5. $27.00

Queer Timing
The Emergence of Lesbian Sexuality in Early Cinema
SUSAN POTTER
“A virtuosic exploration of the sexual opacity of early cinema, Queer Timing centers the figure of the modern lesbian in order to decenteer everything we thought we knew about her.”
—Heather K. Love, author of Feeling Backward: Loss and the Politics of Queer History
Paperback 978-0-252-08424-9. $28.00;
E-book 978-0-252-05130-2. $19.95

Doing Women’s Film History
Reframing Cinemas, Past and Future
EDITED BY CHRISTINE GLEDHILL AND JULIA KNIGHT
Prologue by Jane Gaines and Monica Dall’asta
“An innovative, culturally transformative, and historically complex collection of essays that bring together cinematography, historiography, and political and social activism: areas that have traditionally been gendered as male-dominated fields. . . . A comprehensive and fascinating study.”—Feminist Media Studies
296 pp. 6 x 9. 30 b & w Photos. 2015.
Paperback 978-0-252-08118-7. $30.00;
E-book 978-0-252-09777-5. $25.20

Germaine Dulac
A Cinema of Sensations
TAMI WILLIAMS
“Tami Williams has produced a monumental, extraordinarily well-researched, highly readable portrait of one of the most significant figures in the history of cinema. . . . There is, quite literally, no other book like it anywhere, in any language. It is the first book of its kind and will always be the best.”—Sandy Flitterman-Lewis, author of To Desire Differently: Feminism and the French Cinema
336 pp. 6 x 9. 35 b & w Photos. 2014.
Paperback 978-0-252-07997-6. $30.00;

Universal Women
Filmmaking and Institutional Change in Early Hollywood
MARK GARRETT COOPER

“With rigorous focus, admirable economy, and wide-ranging research, Cooper outlines a sophisticated strategy for investigating how and why Universal Studios hired women as directors and then stopped doing so. This is the book we have been waiting for.”—Kay Armatage, author of The Girl from God’s Country: Nell Shipman and the Silent Cinema

264 pp. 6 x 9. 31 b & w Photos, 1 chart. 2010.

The Uncanny Gaze
The Drama of Early German Cinema
HEIDE SCHLÜPMANN
Translated by Inga Pollmann
Foreword by Miriam Hansen

“Groundbreaking. Widely recognized as a leading scholar on early German cinema, Schlüpmann significantly theorizes film history and lays out a very influential argument.”—Ramona Curry, author of Too Much of a Good Thing: Mae West as Cultural Icon

336 pp. 6 x 9. 188 b & w Photos. 2010.
Paperback 978-0-252-07671-8. $32.00

A Great Big Girl Like Me
The Films of Marie Dressler
VICTORIA STURTEVANT

“An important, groundbreaking work. In reminding us of the stardom of Marie Dressler—the most significant female box-office star of the early sound era in Hollywood—Sturtevant not only tells the definitive story of this unjustly forgotten figure, but calls into question the very idea that stardom is simply an “industry of desire.””—David Desser, coeditor of Hollywood Goes Shopping

208 pp. 6 x 9. 27 b & w Photos. 2009.
Paperback 978-0-252-07922-0. $25.00;
